

CONFIDENTIAL

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN
THE BBC MONITORING SERVICE AND
THE U.S. FOREIGN BROADCAST INFORMATION SERVICE (FBIS)

1. The British Broadcasting Corporation Monitoring Service agrees to provide monitor/translators, support personnel, facilities and operating space to review and translate information monitored by the FBIS unit in Islamabad, Pakistan. Requirements regarding the content of the information to be translated, and the processing criteria, e.g., summarization or full text, will be provided and monitored by FBIS. The number of personnel to be employed will be determined by mutual agreement based on the amount of material to be monitored and the mix of languages involved. (C)

2. FBIS will compensate the BBC Monitoring Service for these services on the basis of actual cost to the BBC for personnel and facilities. The BBC will also be compensated for costs related to recruiting and hiring personnel to provide these services. (C)

John Rae
JOHN RAE
Head of Monitoring Service, BBC

Date: 27th August 1980

Director, FBIS

Date: 31 July 1980

25X1

25X1

CONFIDENTIAL